

In Loving Memory of

Bernie Karpan

April 23rd, 1947 - February 24th, 2022

On Thursday, February 24th, Bernie Karpan, loving wife, mother and friend entered eternal life after a courageous battle with Diabetes, renal failure and various other medical issues. Bernie was surrounded by her husband, Dave, daughter Leah, Leah's fiancé' Buddy, Cardinal and the caring staff of the Stanton Territorial Hospital. Bernie reunited with her son Davey, mother Violet Huber and stepfather Frank Huber. Bernie was born in Regina, Saskatchewan on April 23rd, 1947 and went to school in various communities in Southern Saskatchewan. After high school, Bernie worked in Saskatoon for a short while where she met her husband Dave in October. Three months later, Bernie moved to Yellowknife in January 1967, the new capital of the NWT. Bernie was hired by the federal government where she worked in the steno pool and made her way up in her career to the position as consultant for Health and Social Services. Bernie was a strong, resilient and courageous woman throughout her entire life. Every obstacle Bernie faced, she proceeded through with positivity and bravery. Bernie had such a generous, warm, loving soul and was kind to everyone. Bernie will be deeply missed, remembered, and loved always.

