

In Loving Memory of
Agnes Julia Asher

February 2, 1915 - April 5, 2017

Agnes Julia Asher passed away on Wednesday, April 5, 2017, in St. Joseph's Home at 102 years. She is survived by Don (Yvonne), Ron (Judy), and Donna Marie (Mike) Miller. Agnes found joy in her grandchildren, her great-grandchildren and great-great-granddaughter. She was predeceased by husband Jim in 2000, son Ian in 2001, daughter Elaine in 2010, daughter-in-law Marcella in 1997, and grandson Scott in 1998.

Born on February 2, 1915, in Saskatoon to John and Anna Mary (Perschick) Kush, she has outlived her seven brothers and two sisters. Married to Jim in 1938, they raised their five children in Scott, SK, then Lacombe, AB, followed by retirement to an acreage in Grandora, SK.

Agnes loved sports, and in her youth, won many ribbons for running, and up until retirement, enjoyed curling and golfing. They both worked hard during their retirement raising full blood Simmental cattle and tending a huge garden.

Agnes was known in the Horticultural Societies in the communities where they lived, winning awards for show and arrangements of Gladiolas. Agnes was a CWL member for over fifty years, receiving an Honorary Lifetime membership.
