

Werner Brinsa

*W*erner Brinsa, formerly a 30 year resident of Yellowknife, now living in Kelowna, BC, has passed away suddenly at his home on Friday, January 27, 2006 of heart problems. He is survived by his loving wife Evelyn (Pat), three sisters-in-law, Dorothy (Jack) Gilsoul, Irene (Ken) Regan and Nyola Cawthro, numerous nieces and nephews, one cousin in Germany, Rosevita Pohl. Sadly predeceased by his father and mother in Europe. He chose Yellowknife as his Canadian home in 1951 after WWII and was married in the Anglican Church of Yellowknife in December 1956. He joined the Yellowknife Mason Lodge during this time and became Past Master and Life Member of #162 and Grand Lodge of Alberta in 1969. Retirement meant moving to Kelowna in 1986 which he enjoyed for the last nearly 20 years. Funeral services were held in Springfield Funeral Home, 2020 Springfield Road, Kelowna, on February 3, 2006 where a large group of friends and neighbours celebrated his life. May he rest in peace.
