

Dr. Perry Caplan

*passed away January 20, 2005
after a lengthy illness*

Survived by his brother Michael of Vancouver, three sisters, Corrine Appleton of Israel, Valerie Ever in Florida and Jane Miles on the Isle of Man in the UK. He also had an extended family of nieces, nephews and five grand-nieces and three grand-nephews.

He loved his life in Yellowknife and his medicine. He was a caring doctor as well as enjoying his shooting, travels and family. His humor, his wit and love of life will be remembered by his family and his many friends here and in the UK.

The funeral was held in Vancouver with family and friends present. Perry was buried near his father's grave as he had requested.
