Bruce Stephen Cassidy

May 25, 1957 - July 16, 2009

It is with deep sadness that the family announces the sudden death of their dear son, brother and uncle, Bruce Stephen Cassidy, 52, of Eagle Plains, Yukon, originally of New Glasgow, NS, and formerly of Yellowknife, NT. Bruce passed away on July 16, 2009 in Dawson City, Yukon.

Bruce was born in Halifax on May 25, 1957, the youngest son of Raymond and Jean (Fraser) Cassidy and enjoyed growing up in New Glasgow with his family.

Bruce moved to the North as a young man, where he appreciated the culture and the vastness of the region. He enjoyed working with people and spent many years employed at various locations in the Northwest Territories and Yukon. He will always be remembered for his great sense of humour, his love for his family and his kindness for others. Bruce appreciated good music, enjoyed sports, travel and reading. He enjoyed his journey and took great pleasure in telling the stories of his adventures, both great and small.

His memory will always be treasured in the minds and hearts of his parents, Ray and Jean Cassidy, his brothers David (Paula) - Is. East River, NS; Rick - Calgary, AB, his sisters Karen - St. Albert, AB and Cheryl (Huck MacInnis) - Millstream, NS; nieces Pamela, Tanya and Ashley Cassidy and nephews Graham (Kara Wood) and Steven Cassidy (Sueann Syms) grandnephews, Brett Hayman and Zachary Cassidy. Bruce also had many Northern friends who will miss him very much.

A Service of Remembrance was held on July 23 in Nova Scotia, and interment took place at the Heatherdale Memorial Gardens in Sylvester, Nova Scotia. Donations to the Heart and Stroke Foundations would be appreciated.
