

Judith (Judy) Chatwood

JUDITH (JUDY) CHATWOOD passed away at the age of 58 on June 4, 2012 with her loving husband and best friend by her side in Penticton, BC.

Judy was born on February 1, 1954 in Stoney Creek, Ontario to Florence and William Hatrick. She was raised in Stoney Creek and later moved to the Northwest Territories where she met and married her soul mate Christopher Chatwood. She spent 14 years in the NWT before retiring to Oliver and then Penticton, BC. Judy was not one to sit idle and so volunteered with Chris at the Oliver and Penticton Food Banks. Helping people was her passion. Judy had a courageous battle with cancer, thanks to the support and care of her husband, family, friends and of course, Dr. Entwistle, his assistant Kathy, the Palliative Home Care Nurses and the medical staff at the Penticton General Hospital and the Moog & Friends Hospice House. Her strong will and determination to get as much out of life gave her the strength to beat all medical odds.

Judy is survived by her husband of 21 years, Chris; step-daughters Kirsty (Ben) and Kelly; grandchildren Kaitlin, Keagan, Lilly, Nesiya and Xyaden; and sister Nancy. She will be sadly missed by many nephews, nieces, good friends as well as her cat, Henry. She was preceded in death by her father, mother and sister Joyce.

A memorial service will be held Monday, June 18, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Everden Rust Funeral Home, 1130 Carmi Avenue, Penticton, BC. For those unable to attend due to distance, Chris will travel to Yellowknife and England to celebrate Judy's life with friends and family.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be forwarded to the Canadian Cancer Society, 101-166 Main St. Penticton, BC V2A 5A4 or to the Moog & Friends Hospice House, P.O. Box 1105, Penticton, BC V2A 6J9. Condolences can be sent to the family by visiting everdenrust.com.

Miss Me... But Let Me Go... And Don't Forget Me
