

Jim Cunningham

1946 - 2007

With sorrow, the family of James (Jim) Cunningham announces his recent passing in Yellowknife, NWT.

Jim was born in Peterborough, Ontario, but he found a home in the North. He traveled extensively across the NWT and Nunavut, and worked for the Government of the NWT and for many aboriginal organizations.

He is survived by his loving son Andrew (Alicia), his mother Hazel, sister Judy Foster (Phil), niece April, nephew Craig in Peterborough, and the Bevington and Jaque families in the NWT.

A memorial service to celebrate Jim's life will be held in Peterborough at a later date. A memorial website can be found at www.naasenterprises.ca/jimc
