

Shari Dives

October 8, 1943 -
November 29, 2018

Shari (Jones-Otis) Dives passed away in Hay River, peacefully in her sleep with her loving husband Jim by her side.

Shari is survived by her loving husband Jim; her three children Jodi, Christopher (Heather), Cindy (Junior) and her beloved grandchildren Sebastian and Amelia; as well as her brother Tim (Kathy). Along with her husband Jim, Shari opened her home and heart to several foster children, each whom she considered one of her own. She also leaves behind many cherished friends.

Although born in Hanford, California, Shari first came North in 1967 to Inuvik where she lived until 1969. She returned North to Yellowknife in 1977, where she worked at William McDonald Junior High, the YK1 board office, and Public Works Canada. After "retiring" to Enterprise, Shari worked for GNWT Public works.

Shari enjoyed sewing, especially crocheting blankets or making quilts to keep those she loves warm.

At Shari's request, a funeral was not held, but a Mass in her memory was held in New York at her son-in-law's church. Shari's body was cremated in Edmonton, and her ashes returned home to Jim in Enterprise.

Shari will be sadly missed by all who loved her.

