

Phillip Walter Galloway

Phillip Walter Galloway, 45, passed away in his sleep December 12, 2012. Phillip led a quiet life, spending the majority of his time in Yellowknife.

He spent brief periods in Inuvik, Calgary, AB, Strasbourg, SK, Winnipeg, MB, and Halifax, NS.

Phillip is survived by his mother Alvina (Solomon) in Woodstock, NL, his father Roy (Jo-Anne) Dartmouth, NS, his sister, Susan Kidney (Rob), Bedford, NS, his brother Joseph Lafleur, Edmonton, AB, a nephew Alex Kidney and a niece Erica Kidney. Phillip was part of a large extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins throughout Canada.

He is also survived by his good friend, Darren Adams, and he will be missed by the seniors at the Avens Centre where he spent a great deal of time volunteering.

Phillip's cremated remains will be sent to Newfoundland to reside with his mother.

Donations in honour of Phillip can be made to the Heart & Stroke Foundation or the Arthritis Society.
