

Michelle Hagen

was born in Sudbury, Ontario in 1965 and passed away on July 21st at Stanton Territorial Hospital at 54 years old. Michelle lived for the first 18 years of her life in Elliot Lake, Ontario.

She was called by God (The Creator) to be a Missionary in the North, At 18 she went to Greenland with YWAM, (Youth With A Mission), then to Baffin Island and finally in 2019 the Northwest Territories. She loved God the Creator, children, and the outdoors.

In 1984, Michelle and her husband met at Catherine Booth Bible College in Winnipeg. They married 1994 and were happily married until her passing.

Michelle moved to Northwest Territories in 2016 and was employed by the Salvation Army Shelter as a caseworker until 2017 when she became a Social Worker in Behchoko. She worked diligently for the families and children in her care. She offered them help wherever and whenever they needed it. She moved to Behchoko in 2018 and moved back to Yellowknife in 2019. She will be remembered as a mother to many children.

In Lieu of flowers, donations can be made to a church of your choice. Michelle considered a church as being a congregation of people rather than a building or institution. She believed that God the Creator has many names and titles in many cultures. Her life long theme was "Love each other and be accepting of people wherever and whomever they are.

She is survived by her husband Wayne, children Beverly, Tabatha, Katie and Jae, as well as brothers, sisters, and others in Ontario.
