August 12, 1942 - July 15, 2019

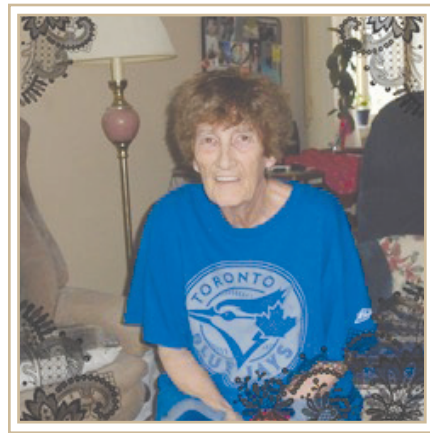

The family of Wendy Hansen sadly announce the passing of their much loved Mother and grandmother at the age of 76, July 15, 2019.

Born in Brighton England, she moved to Canada at the age of four. She resided throughout western Canada during her young life due to her father's career with the RCA. She married Finn and together they raised three children. They owned and operated their taxi (Car 12) for many years. She loved her job as she met many people who became her lifelong friends. She lived a happy and wonderful life; her garden and flowers kept her busy throughout the summer.

was held July 20, 2019.*
