

Henry Jason
HOGGAN

September 29, 1980 – November 1, 2006

Henry passed away suddenly November 1, 2006 at the age of 26 years. He is survived by his loving wife Melissa Rosch, children Alisa and Alex Adamson, parents Judy and Harry Hoggan and grandparents Maureen and Jack Guile, as well as sister Leslie (Louie) Luce, and nieces Rhaea, Dez and Maddie and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Henry was a gentle soul who always had a smile and was generous to all who knew him. Henry worked for Connors Drilling, working his way up through the ranks, starting in the shop and working his way up to be one of the top drillers. Henry earned the respect of his co-workers and friends from his hard effort and “get it done” attitude.

Henry recently found his soul mate, making plans with his new family to build a future together. Henry adored his ready-made family, wanting to adopt his step-daughter Alisa and step-son Alex, hoping to have a child of his own. A treasure to many of his friends who thought of him as a brother, always there to lend a hand, Henry was a great son, grandson, brother, uncle, husband, father, cousin and friend.

Henry will be truly missed.

A Service of Remembrance was held at the Southwest Community Church, 700 Hugh Allen Drive, Kamloops, BC on Tuesday, November 7, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. with Pastor Ken Nettleton officiating.
