

Ross Jen

July 04, 1953 ~ February 28, 2017

It is with great sadness the family of Ross Jen announce his unexpected passing on Tuesday, February 28, 2017, at the age of 63 years. Husband, stepfather, son, brother, nephew and uncle, Ross will be forever remembered by his wife and best friend Pia, and their children, Scott Williams (Candice) and Heather Warner (Shannon); his brother and sisters Randy (Karen), Eva Wong (Jimmy), Edna Jen-Warrington (Lorne), and Ronda Jen-Chaisson (Richard); and brother-in-law John Parry. Ross was predeceased by his parents, Doris and Wesley, his sister Rosanna Parry, and his brother Edward Jen.

Ross will also be lovingly remembered by his numerous aunts and uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless friends.

Born Wai Tuen Jun on July 4, 1953, in Hong Kong, China, Ross came to Canada with his family in 1960 and settled in Ponteix, Saskatchewan. Ross moved to Regina for a time and ultimately headed north of the 60th parallel to settle in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories.

Ross spent nearly half his life in the north, working first in the restaurant industry and later in the security field.

Ross loved photography and had an avid interest in policing, spending many years volunteering his time as an Auxiliary Constable with RCMP G Division in Yellowknife.

The family would like to thank the doctors and excellent nursing staff at Stanton Territorial Hospital, Yellowknife, NT, for the excellent care they provided to Ross, and to Dr. Ryan Snelgrove, Dr. Saroush Sojai, and the nephrology team at the University of Alberta Hospital in Edmonton.

Celebrations of Ross' life will be held in Yellowknife on March 18, 2017, at the Explorer Hotel Katimavik

Room at 2:00 pm, and in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, on March 25, 2017, at the University Club, 101 Administration Place University of Saskatchewan at 2:00 pm.

Donations can be made in Ross' name to the charity of your choice.
