

Gaspard Kabudweki Kabanga

January 28, 1960 - November 14, 2012

At the beginning Congolese, then Canadian, always human

Gaspard was born in the District of Dillo, Village of Sakayongo, in Congo. He moved to Canada in 1997, where he quickly obtained a Diploma of Business Administration, with a specialty in Accounting from the University of Alberta. His first job in Canada was with the Commission scolaire francophone du Nord-Ouest in Peace River, Alberta. In 2003, he moved to Yellowknife where he worked until his death at the Commission scolaire francophone.

Gaspard was a peacemaker. He was also looking to build bridges between people and ensure harmonious relationships. He loved music and spending time with his friends and family. He had a deep-belly laugh and an endearing smile that would melt your heart.

He leaves behind his wife Ingrid Nguala, who is pregnant, his daughters Sarah Malu (25 years), Adrianna (2½), his 1 year old son, Amos, his brother, Willy Dikasa, his sister, Brigitte Mianda, and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral Service will be held on Saturday, November 24, 2012 at the Cornerstone Pentecostal Church at 118 Haener Drive.
