After her retirement from teaching, she obtained her licentiate in Canon law and served for an additional 25 years in the marriage tribunal in the diocese of Nelson, B.C., also making a great contribution to various Diocesan committees and as treasurer of the Sisters' Council.

Sister was a creative fundraiser for the Kenyan missions, where her sister, Sister Paula, served as a Maryknoll missionary. She was an avid bridge player, eager to share a game, and a helpful mentor to others who wanted to improve their game.
