

In Loving Memory of Marie Louise Lacorne

March 10, 1934 – October 1, 2014

The family of Marie Louise Lacorne are saddened to announce her untimely passing on October 1, 2014, Marie Louise had been battling cancer for the past seven years. First diagnosed with colon cancer in 2007, Marie Louise had fought her illness with courage and determination. She wanted to live life to the fullest for her grandchildren and her family. The cancer was in remission until recently, when she was hospitalized with a stroke and the cancer had returned. After her stroke, she wanted to regain her independence and was in physiotherapy at the Stanton Territorial Hospital and Glen Rose in Edmonton.

Marie Louise wanted to come home and be with her loved ones. At her request, she came home and was cared for by her daughters. Sadly, she had succumbed to her illness. Marie Louise closed her eyes for the last time, surrounded by her family and friends.

Marie Louise is survived by her husband Jonas Lacorne, brother Daniel Squirrel, daughters Trudy Lacorne-Tanche (Robert Tanche), Delores Lacorne (John Gon), Nora Simba (Wayne Simba), Margaret Lacorne-Chicot (Patrick Chicot), and numerous grandchildren, great grandchild, nephews and nieces.

FUNERAL SERVICES will be held at Our Lady of Providence church on Tuesday, October 7, 2014 at 2:00 pm in Fort Providence, NT, followed by reception at the community hall (Nahecho Keh Centre).
