

Lynn (Earlene) Lambert

August 7, 1947 - March 22, 2012

Lynn passed away at her home in the early morning hours of Thursday. She had been bravely fighting numerous illnesses for several years.

Those who knew her respected her for her strong work ethics and straight moral compass. Many fondly think of her as "a tough old bird"; a sentiment she often laughed at and heartily agreed with!

Her son, Earl, declares he would never be the man he is had his mother been any different from the way she was. He is comforted by his wife, Sharon, who found in her mother-in-law, a great friend.

Lynn is survived too, by her seven grandchildren, Carolrose (m. Daniel), Robert, Chase, Casey, Nina, Shakira, and Hayden. Also by her four great-grandchildren, Grant, Corinne, James, and David and her sole great-great-grandson, Nicholas. These children, young and old, were the absolute light of her life and were loved and spoiled without measure. Each knew just what to say or do to wrap "Gramma" or "Nana" around their little fingers. All will miss her dearly.

The other members of her family who are left behind are her nephews and niece: Paul Forbes (m. Doreen), Tim Forbes (m. Jeannette), and Kelly Arychuk (m. Michael), and all of their children: James, Dusty-Lynn, Mathew, Natasha, David, Dustin, Courtney and Colton.

Lynn was pre-deceased by her sister, Joyce Forbes and their parents. She is and will continue to be sadly missed by all... Goodbye, Nan! We love you!
