

Jack MacPhee

1949 - 2005

John D. MacPhee of Yellowknife, formerly from Brudenell, Prince Edward Island, passed away in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, January 25, 2005 after a courageous, 7 year battle with leukemia. Jack will be sadly missed by the many friends that were a part of his well-lived 55 years. Jack is survived by his wife Kathy, son John-Earl and daughter Chatelaine, by his mother Annie C. MacPhee, brothers Lorne, Kimble and Ivan MacPhee, and sisters Dorothy MacPherson, Blanche MacKinnon, and Dianne Murphy. Jack worked underground at Keno Hill Mine, Yukon Territory, and at Giant and Con mines in Yellowknife. He had numerous friends from the Breakaway Gym where he worked out for many years. Cremation, private memorial at Jack's request. Please remember Jack as a healthy man, full of zest for life, and a good friend to all he knew.

Donations may be made to Stanton Territorial Hospital in lieu of flowers.
