

HARRY MANTLA

November 26, 1940 - January 16, 2012

Harry Mantla passed away on January 16, 2012. Harry was a husband, father, grandpa, great-grandpa, uncle, brother, brother-in-law, son-in-law, nephew, a friend to all, and most of all a great teacher.

He loved his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, the youth of our communities, and he loved the land. He was raised on the land according to the traditional Tlicho way of life, and he knew the land. He made very good use of the knowledge, skills, and teachings that were passed on to him by his parents and grandparents as the oldest son of the family. He learned his traditional skills through obedience and hard work.

Harry leaves behind his wife Rosa, their children Janice (deceased), Beatrice, Daniel, Justin, Darrell, and Lianne, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.
