Rosalyn May Moore passed away on Saturday, December 2, 2017, at the University of Alberta Hospital in Edmonton, Alberta. She was born on May 7, 1955, in Aklavik, NT and attended school in Fort Smith and Inuvik. Most of her life was spent in Yellowknife, NT. Much of her working career was spent as a cook's helper and cook. Initially she worked for Dome Petroleum, then at several camps throughout the NWT. Rosalyn maintained a strong spiritual faith throughout her life, she loved her family and friends; she called on people regularly and enjoyed cooking and sharing food with hospital patients, feasts and friends. She will be remembered for her kindness, laughter, beautiful sewing, humour and love of bingo.

Rosalyn leaves her beloved children Lucille, Ryan and Melaine and grandchildren, special friend James, extended family in Yellowknife, South Slave, Alberta, Mackenzie Delta and Ontario and many dear and close friends. The family wishes to thank the many people who offered prayers, support and kindness.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE
will be held at a later date.

"It's not goodbye, it's see you later."
