Arthur (Art) Charles Morgan

November 9, 1927 - December 5, 2005

After a short but courageous battle with cancer, Art passed away peacefully at his home in Penticton, BC.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his much loved and loving wife Joan; one son, four daughters, thirteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild: Barry (Dawna) Morgan, Douglas, John, Andrew, Kristyn & Kaitlyn of Edmonton, Alberta; Merle (Brian Harrison) Morgan, of Yellowknife, Teresa Page (James Sutcliffe) & Emma of Vancouver, BC, Richard (Melissa Dimarino) Page of Calgary, Alberta; Susan (Rick) Capyk, Nicholas & Jenna of Oliver, BC; Jane (Pierre) Bentaberry of Penticton, Leah (Nathan) & Chelsea (Kyle) of Victoria, BC; and Jana (Philip Young) Ferrie of Summerland, BC, Blayne (Rob) of Vancouver and Regan of Lumby, BC.

He also leaves two sisters, Virginia of Sicamous, BC and Joan of Charlottetown, PEI. He was predeceased by his parents, Arthur & Gladys and his sister Marion Hardiman.

The family requests that anyone wishing to remember Art do so with a gift to The Canadian Cancer Society.
