

Angelique Nadli

September 19, 1936 - May 1, 2012

The Nadli, Thom, Vandell and Landry family are saddened to announce the passing of their mom, auntie, sister, and grandmother, Angelique Nadli. Surrounded by family and relatives, Angelique died peacefully after an illness with cancer. Funeral services were held at Our Lady of Providence Roman Catholic Church on May 4, 2012 in Fort Providence. A reception was also held at the Nahecho Keh Centre.

Angelique leaves to mourn her son Michael M. Nadli (Shirley); sisters Margaret Vandell (Norman), Mary Rose Landry (Ted), Albertine Nadli (Modeste), Bernadette Landry (Johnny); brothers James Thom (Margaret), Michael Thom, and Lawrence Thom. Grandchildren Roslyn and Denny Nadli and numerous nieces and nephews.

Angelique was predeceased by her husband Jonas Nadli and her parents Henri and Rosalie Thom.

We understand Angelique had friends near and far. A special mention to our relatives that could not make it because of the ice conditions and not being able to cross the river. We thank you for calling, expressing your sorrow for our loss and providing us support to be strong. Your thoughts and prayers are most appreciative.

To all close friends that visited and stayed with Mom, the coordinators, all the cooks, hunters, drummers, and Father Wes. We thank the many donations we received, local and out-of-town organizations including the Canadian Cancer Society, Yellowknife.

We feel it is important to acknowledge the following organizations for their contributions/donations: Deh Gah Got'ie First Nations, Hamlet of Fort Providence, Metis Nation Local 57, Digaa Enterprises Ltd, Deh Gah Bridge Society, Aurora Market, Snowshoe Inn, Gochia Taxi, and Zhahtie Koe Friendship Centre. Legislative Assembly, Northland Utilities, and Denendeh Investments Incorporated. To all the individuals that helped us throughout this difficult period, Mahsi Cho!

