

Neil Gregory Orser

August 25, 1929 - July 22, 2018

Neil passed away, peacefully, at the Kelowna General Hospital while in the company of his loving wife, Dorothy, during the early morning hours of Sunday, July 22, 2018.

Neil is survived by his wife, Dorothy, and his blended family; including sons Ron Orser (Helen), Ross Orser (Liela), Alan Orser (Joanne); daughter Pat Smythies (Dave); stepchildren Trevor Teed (Joanne), Joni Walker (Roger) and Russell Teed (Liz); sisters Helen White, Edna Jacklin (George), Grace Sharp (Charlie); sister-in-law Agnes Orser and many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

Neil was predeceased by his father, Reverend Elwood Orser; mother, Gladys Orser; brothers, Ross and Robert; and step-daughter Sandra Teed.

Neil was born in Scarborough, Ontario on August 25, 1929, and he made his way west as a 17-year-old eventually arriving at Yellowknife, NWT in 1947. Neil worked for Falconbridge as a diamond driller, as well as at Yellowknife's Giant Gold Mine, before eventually buying Peterson & Auger (the Coca-Cola bottling plant) while he and his first wife raised their four children.

Neil married a second time to Dorothy Teed during 1978 in Edmonton, AB and returned to Yellowknife to continue running his businesses before eventually retiring to Penticton, BC in 1990.

Neil was very passionate about his Coca-Cola franchise, as well as flying his Cessna 180 (C-FICR).

The family would like to thank the doctors and staff at the Kelowna and Penticton hospitals, with a special thanks to Dr. David Dutchman.
