*It's certain that from day to day, the sun will shine and fade away.
We too must learn like all the rest, this road we tread is but a test.*

*Just as the sun, we also rise, and pass through clouds and sunny skies.
Not knowing just what lies in store, behind each cloud, another door.*

*Dear Creator, grant me the will to go, where all the greatest rivers flow.
The smiles I share, the hands I clutch, will make content, all those I touch.*

Then as my sun begins to set, I too, can say without regret, my footprints sunken in the sand, can be a path for any man.

(I'll see you another day)

Our heartfelt thanks to our extended family, and our many friends and colleagues for your caring and support during this difficult time. We especially want to thank Chief Leon Lafferty, his staff, the community of Behchoko, Search and Rescue, the Coast Guard, the RCMP, and the many volunteers who helped in our search to find Michael. We will always remember your courage and kindness.
