My Guardian Angel

An angel came one morning
A visit he did pay
That angel took my friend
And tore my heart away

So innocent was my friend
An angel in my eye
My friend didn't say goodbye
She only gave a sigh

I truly loved my friend
More than words could ever say
Lord, why did that angel come
And take my friend away?

The answers, I will never know
For it was your chosen
I know my friend's in heaven
Safe in your arms, I pray

Lord, help to see that light
So that I may understand
And when I see my friend again
It will be for eternity.....

As long as the sun shines,
The grass grows,
And the rivers flow,

I will remember you
.....XOXOXOX...
