Friends of the Crucified

*They are never alone who suffer
Though no friend stand at their side
Yet tenderly on them from Heaven falls*

*The glance of the Crucified.
For they are the few – the crucified
Who drink from the Master's cup.
Though many are called those few alone*

*Remain with the King to sup.
They are never forgotten who suffer
Be the trial small or great,*

*The voice of the Crucified says,
"My child, I know thy suffering state
Of the prayers and tears through life's brief years
A crown for eternity."*
