

In Loving Memory

of our dear brother
and best friend

Alvin Selamio

January 12, 1959-February 7, 2010

Loving son to the late
Noah and Margaret Selamio

Alvin loved spending time out on the land, he enjoyed hunting and fishing with his dear friends Paul Petrin and Amy Rogers. He was just a fun and loving person to have around the camp. He also spent a lot of time out at Airport Lake helping Clifford Shattler and Conrad Bourke while building their cabins. He was also very close to Lucy Adams and Moe Grant, who he helped out at Lucy's fishing camp. He thought of them like they were his own mother.

He was also known to be a real ladies man and his favourite words to everyone was I Love You or I Still Love You! He would always make it a point to go visit his brother Peter. He always made sure Virginia had what she needed for their household. While at Peter's home he would always be looking out the window to see if his buddy Paul was home. He loved to tease Paul and had much respect for him.

Alvin enjoyed working for E. Gruben's Transport, especially when working out at camp. He would always lend a helping hand to all his family and friends. He was like a brother to all his co-workers and will be dearly missed by that crew.

We, his family and friends from Inuvik, will always remember Alvin bringing such joy to our lives through joking and laughing, singing at the top of his lungs, and always wanting to give hugs, especially to the sweethearts in his life. Alvin was the type of man who would always open the doors for the ladies. He could be very immature at times, but that's just because he was still a child inside a young man's body.

A special thank you to all the people who helped during this difficult time.

Alvin (Onions) will always be remembered.

From Peter, Roger, Paul and especially Agnes Kraemer.
