The family wishes to share the news of the passing of David Siemens, aged 72. David was born in 1947 in Chilliwack, BC, to Blanche and Reuben Siemens. He is survived by his wife Mary, his children Corrie and Peter, and by his grandchildren Jake and Camryn. He also leaves behind two brothers, Laird (Annalee) and Mark (Carol) Siemens.

After his travels, adventures, and many jobs, David moved north in 1974 to Inuvik, and soon after to Yellowknife, as told in his book, 'An Untold Story.' In Yellowknife he met his lifelong love, Mary, at the church of Gordon and Ruth Baily. He eventually settled in Behchoko, his wife's hometown, working and raising his family. He resided there for the rest of his life. He was a friend to many within the Tlicho region, helping others when he could, and sharing his faith as a follower of Jesus Christ. David's life was in turn greatly enriched by those he came across in the north. A Bible verse that he wished to share is Isaiah 30:18:

*Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you,
And he exalts himself to show mercy to you.*

*For the Lord is a God of justice,
Blessed are all those who wait for him.*
