

Marie-Chantal Stanton (née Lafond)

1960 – 2014

At the early age of 53, Chantal was called to God's arms on May 28, 2014 in Stony Plain, AB. She was surrounded by her family during her strong and courageous battle with cancer. She leaves behind her husband of 35 years, Barrie Stanton and their three wonderful girls: Erin Dean (Liam), Caitlin Stanton (Morgan), and her youngest Devin Stanton. Her precious grandchildren: Isaac, Isabelle, Ila and Lynden kept her young at heart.

Born in Montreal, QC she later moved to Yellowknife, NT where she met her husband and began both her nursing career and her family. In later years she relocated to Stony Plain, AB and also had the opportunity to live abroad in Trinidad, WI. Her time in the West Indies sparked Chantal's love of travel and she was fortunate enough to have the opportunity to enjoy numerous trips with both her family and friends.

At home, Chantal loved to spend her time in the kitchen "adding the love" to all of the family meals, of which there were many.

Chantal also leaves behind her father, Olivier Lafond, her brother Jacques Lafond (Judy) and their children, her sister Lucie Lafond, her nieces Dawn (Lily) and Stephanie (Abigail) Kossey. In addition she leaves behind her mother-in-law, Mavis Stanton, Mary Jane & Denis Fedor, Carolyne & Patrick Stanton, numerous nieces and nephews, as well as many relatives in Quebec, Alberta and the Northwest Territories.

She was predeceased by her father-in-law Bernard Stanton, brother-in-law Sean Stanton, and her dear friend Randy Warke.

Live today because tomorrow is not promised!

A mass was held in her honour Tuesday, June 3, 2014 at 11:00 am from Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Spruce Grove, AB.
