

Vera Joanne Dyer

October 6, 1933 – September 30, 2021

With sadness the family announce the passing of Vera Joanne Dyer on September 30, 2021 at Sunnyside Adventist Care at the age of 87.

Born to Durward Edward White and Ivy Maude (Parker) White in the family's drugstore. Predeceased by her husband Aldrich (Audie) James Dyer in 1992, her sister Norma Jean Keachie in 2008, a foster daughter Eloise Atsatia in 2010, and a granddaughter Christa Maurita Murray in 2013. She is survived by five children; Allan (Brenda) Dyer, Peter (Jo-Anne) Dyer, Barbara Schreck, David Dyer and Sharon Neufeld; grandchildren, Marielle Dyer, Jamielyn Dyer, James Dyer, Emily Dyer, Shallen Murray, Hannah Schreck, Rebecca Schreck, Sarah Schreck, Dustin Neufeld, Cassidy Dyer; great-grandchildren Nungohsas, Celine, and Juan Lucho. She was known as Auntie Gus to her special nieces Margy-Jo, Lyn, and Jean and nephew Alex.

All Vera's early schooling was in Wawota, SK until she left to Toronto graduating from Nursing in 1954. She worked in Regina until she married Aldrich in 1956. They moved to Yellowknife, NT in 1959. The family became multi-cultural over the years and Vera supported her husband's education by nursing while in Edmonton and then they moved to Saskatoon in 1974 with Aldrich becoming a professor at the University of Saskatchewan. Vera continued working at the University Hospital retiring in 1988. She continued hosting students, driving cancer patients to treatments, and perfecting her knitting and crocheting. She moved to Preston Park Lodge in 2011 and then to Sunnyside Adventist Care in 2017.

A Private Family Funeral Service will be held at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, 10 Grosvenor Crescent, Saskatoon on Wednesday, October 6, 2021 with interment to follow at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens. To share memories and condolences, visit www.parkfuneral.ca "Obituaries-Guestbook". Arrangements entrusted to Greg Lalach, Park Funeral Home 306.244.2103.

