

Nora Villebrun

August 23, 1937 - September 20, 2023

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Nora Charlotte Villebrun (Isaac) on September 20, 2023, in Edmonton, Alberta. Nora was born in Hay River, Northwest Territories on August 23, 1937. She was the seventh and youngest child born to Donald and Madelaine Isaac. She is predeceased by her daughter, Lori Villebrun, and her siblings, Frank, Alfred, Annie and Lucy Isaac, Rosie Sibbeston, Emily (Charles) Kennedy. Nora leaves behind her husband, P. N. Raymond Villebrun, two daughters, Marlene Villebrun (Randall McKenzie) and Gwendolyn Villebrun (Chad Neumeier), grandsons, Justin (Tenille) Villebrun, Bradyn Villebrun, Cassidy Villebrun-Buracas (Phoenix Bain), and great grandson Jax Villebrun.

Nora lived most of her life in the Northwest Territories, residing in Hay River, Inuvik, and Yellowknife. She later lived in Slave Lake and lastly in Edmonton, Alberta. She had training in early childhood development, and provided childcare in her home and then later, worked in a daycare centre in Slave Lake. Nora was an active community member and volunteered many hours for the Royal Purple Elks and the Royal Canadian Legion.

Nora took great pride in taking care of the family home and preparing delicious meals. She loved spending time with loved ones, often planning picnics, making holidays special, and creating beautiful beadwork.

Nora's family are heartbroken by her loss and her strong spirit will continue to inspire us.

The family welcomes you to join them at a funeral service that will be held on Thursday, October 12, 2023, at 2 pm at St. Andrew's Anglican Church in Hay River, Northwest Territories. Interment will follow at the Hay River Cemetery.
