Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow;

I am the diamond glints on the snow;

I am the sunlight on ripened grain;

I am the gentle Autumn's rain.

When you waken in the morning's hush;

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight;

I am the soft star that shines at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there, I did not die.

~Mary Frye (1932)~

Dearly missed by Dad, Mom, brothers and sister, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, many other relatives and many, many friends far and near.

Thank You

During our very difficult time, we had support, assistance, friendship, advice, help, and love from so many. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you. We sincerely apologize if we have missed anyone. Our special thanks, with our love, to our families who came from out of town to be here with us: the Wilcox family, the Niptanatiak family, and the Lyall family. We've had overwhelming support from our friends and family, with your continued support we will be able to move forward.
