

Nathan Wilson

June 14, 1987 - June 21, 2014

*"You were born a child of light's wonderful secret
– you return to the beauty you have always been."*

– Aberjhani, Visions of a Skylark Dressed in Black

Nathan was many things to many people, son, grandson, brother, uncle, cousin, friend, lover, volunteer and inspiration. He was a young man who walked his own path and chose to not follow that of others. As one of his friends said, "if there was a mountain in his way, Nathan would climb it." His passions ranged from skateboarding, to cooking, to music, and of course he was always there for his family and friends, willing to help or share a laugh.

Nathan is survived by his parents, Anu and Doug Wilson; his siblings, Arun (Madeline) Wilson, Nadia Wilson, Kameron Pottinger and Asia Pottinger; his grandparents, Norman and Dawn Pottinger, and Vijay and Prabha Malhotra; as well as an extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins.

A celebration of Nathan's life will be held on Saturday, June 28, 2014 at 4:00 pm
at the Northern United Place Auditorium in Yellowknife.

Please join us in honouring a young man whose light touched us all, and faded too soon.
