

It is with great sadness that we inform you of the passing of who passed away suddenly while walking his dog on March 15, 2017.

Charlie was born on August 9, 1979 in Pointe Claire, Quebec, and moved to Newmarket, Ontario in 1984. After graduation, Charlie attended college in Barrie, Ontario and later in North Bay, Ontario, where Charlie studied to be an Aircraft Maintenance Engineer. After college, Charlie was hired by Air Tindi in Yellowknife, NWT, where he spent his career doing what he loved most - maintaining airplanes and training others in his field.

He leaves behind his soulmate Ashlie LeBlanc, and their daughter Morgan; parents Judy & Al Kohut, brother Kris Kohut and his wife Lori; nephew Will; Grandpa Reeser and Marilyn, and many more aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Visitation and a tribute for Charlie was held at Assman's Funeral Chapel, 1908 Queensway, Prince George, BC V2L1M2.

Charlie's words, "You can't buy happiness but, you can buy a fishing pole, it's pretty much the same thing."

In Lieu of flowers, a donation to the British Columbia Wildlife Federation, <http://www.bcwf.net/index.php/donate/tribute-giving> would be appreciated.
