

Harold Marshall

October 11, 1931 - March 2, 2004

Dad passed away in Salmon Arm, BC after a short battle with cancer. He was born in Camrose, Alberta, the youngest of nine children. On February 26, 1955 he married his lifelong love, Blanche in Edmonton. Mom and Dad moved north to Fort Smith in 1959. After living briefly in Hay River and Fort Providence, they moved to Yellowknife in 1975. Dad worked with the Federal Department of Public Works until he retired in 1993.

They moved to Tappen, BC where Dad pursued his love of woodworking. On February 14, Valentine's Day, Mom and Dad renewed their 50th wedding vows. A little early, but who's counting. The day was made more special for them because all the kids were present.

Harold Marshall was high-spirited, yet one of the kindest, gentlest men we have known. His easy-going, down-to-earth approach to life endeared him to all. He faced his eminent passing head-on, with strength of character that defies explanation. We are blessed to call this man our father and our friend.

We love you Dad and miss you,
Cory, Wayne, Debbie, Darrel, Kirby and Mom
