SPECIAL THANK YOU TO ALL

The Martin and Tsetta families would like to thank the community of Ndilo, Dettah, Behchoko and other Dene communities for your thoughts, prayers and support during this difficult time.

We would like to express our appreciation to the staff of the Stanton Territorial Hospital, Doctors and Nurses of Emergency, ICU, and Medicine. We would also like to thank the Yellowknives Dene First Nation, Treaty 8 Entitlement Office, CKLB-FM Radio, CBC Radio, Yellowknife Corrections Institution, Bill and Maria Skentos, Father Daley, John Tees and the Dettah and Ndilo drummers.

A big masi cho to Alice Wifladt for making the pair of moccasins, Gina Vincent for providing the caribou hide, Debra Buggins for making the beautiful dress, Violet Flunkie for making the handkerchief, Ted Edjericon for making the cross and Jennifer Drygeese for making the beautiful card.

The families wish to take this opportunity to thank: Pat Goulet, Dolly Zoe, Dorothy Zoe, Nora Williamson, Muriel Betsina, Nora Mackenzie, Doreen Westrum, Mary Rose Sangris, Lucy Staples, Cathy Doctor and Alice Abel for doing all the cooking.

Finally to all the people and organizations for their donations and their time. Victor Crapeau, Agnes Beyonnie, Garry Bekale, Leroy Betsina, Kathy Dryneck, Rachel Crapeau, Denendeh Development Corporation, Yellowknives Dene First Nation, K'alemi Dene School, Weledah Dogrib Students and De Beers Canada Inc., Nuna Contracting and Nunasi Group of Companies.
