

Frederick Allan Webb

September 6, 1935 ~ July 25, 2013

Frederick Allan Webb, born September 6, 1935, Woodstock, N.B. died on July 25, 2013, in Kamloops, B.C., survived by his wife of 60 years Irene (Barrett), Chase, B.C.; siblings David (Sharon) Webb, Mary Leigh Webb, Woodstock, N.B.; daughters Cindy (Warren) Morris, Calgary, A.B. and Janice (Jack) Everett, Burnaby, B.C.; sons Martin (Joanne) Webb, Armstrong, B.C. and Derek (Donna) Webb, Leduc, AB; grandchildren, Christine Morris, Alayna (Jon) Silverberg, Warren Morris, Lesley Everett, Harrison & Allison Webb, Sarah & Emily Webb; great-grandsons, Brandon & Lexton Thomas; predeceased by his parents Gundy & Alice Webb, brother Gary Webb & granddaughter Jessica Webb.

Fred graduated from Carleton County Vocational School in 1953 and St. John Vocational School in 1956. Fred's first job was trucking for Webb Bros. Potatoes. He served briefly in the Queen's Own Rifles & the Royal Canadian Regiment before working as a radio operator for the Department of Transport, Moncton, N.B. and on various ships, the Baffin, Hudson, Acadia, Labrador & M.J. Boylen. The icebreakers took him to the Arctic in the 1950's resulting in treasured friendships with Inuit people that continued until his passing.

From 1967 to 1987 Fred ran a very successful hunting and fishing outfitting business with son Martin in N.B., Nfld, and N. Quebec, and after 1987 in NWT and Nunavut. He sold his business in 2011, remaining as a consultant until his hospitalization in April 2013.

Fred was the author of three popular books: Home from the Hill, Campfire Lies of a Canadian Hunting Guide, and Nunavut - Journey to Adventure, as well as many articles in various sporting magazines.

He was a member of Safari Club International (and first North American outfitter to receive the "SCI Outstanding Professional Hunter's Award"), Dallas Safari Club, Foundation for North American Wild Sheep, Elk Foundation, Game Coin Conservation Intl, and the National Sporting Fraternity. He was a former president of the N.B. Outfitters & consultant for N.B. Tourism Advisory Council.

Fred's family thanks Doctors Montalbetti, Faddegon and Nikolakis for their excellent care and Ponderosa Lodge staff for their outstanding support of Fred and his family. A private family service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations in Fred's name to Parkinson Society Canada would be appreciated.

